No matter where he goes, Aric is hailed as a once-in-a-lifetime warrior. On his new home planet, Gorin, this rings truer than ever as Aric continues to climb up the ranks of the Azure army.

Following his successful assault on The Cadmium Imperial City, Aric and his team have earned renown among the Azure forces, but their mission is incomplete. In the chaos of the attack, the Cadmium President managed to escape and now Aric must follow his trail through the mysterious lands of the deadly Burnt tribesmen.

ARIC OF EARTH

Once again into the fray. The warrior formerly known as X-O Manowar finds himself in the thick of the fight and leading a team in the heart of enemy territory.

SHANHARA

Aric has resisted donning the mystical X-O Manowar suit, but is unable to forget it entirely. Fashioned into a ring, the armor continues to speak to him, a small yet insistent voice that he cannot ignore.

WYNN

A young Azure soldier who followed Aric into battle in the initial assault on the Cadmium capital, what Wynn lacks in experience, he makes up for with a dogged devotion to his team leader.

CLUBB AND SCAR

The Azure twins forcefully drafted Aric and brought an end to his quiet life with Schon, but after some reluctance they have learned to trust the man they once looked down upon.

CATT

A brutal and hardened warrior of the Burnt tribe, Catt is a fierce fighter who takes no quarter with her enemy. She is a voice of reason and offers valuable insight to Aric.

BRUTO

A Cadmium turncoat, Bruto has supplied the Azure army with essential information for the siege of his former home. He may not be much of a fighter, but there is far more to Bruto than meets the eye.

SCHON

An Azure citizen working as a tavern maid, she longs to escape the yoke of Cadmium tyranny, but is distraught when Aric is forced to join the Azure army.
