I'M THE DOCTOR.

I'M ACE...

AND OUR EARS WERE BURNING.

-- ARE YOU READY TO SURRENDER?

CATCH A FALLING STAR

My name is Gabby Gonzalez and I'm a time traveler.

Well, I was. I'm dead now, so I'm not really much of anything anymore...

But I guess that means I can say anything I like.

That's the beauty of being dead -- you get the full picture. You look back on your life with a bit of clarity, a bit of forgiveness for being human.

Only, as it turned out, sometimes I was a little bit more than human.

Somewhere along the way, I picked up some powers...

And became something the Doctor called a "Vortex Butterfly."

But that strength and knowledge is fading now, like a light dimming inside me as I fall...

I started out as a waitress in my parents' Mexican restaurant in Sunset Park, Brooklyn. I hated it. I wanted to be an artist, a storyteller...

That's what my best friend Cindy Wu always said I should do.

Oh, Cin, I should've listened...

Guess I would've found a way to do that eventually, but then I met the Doctor and helped him defeat an invasion by alien psychic vampires called Cerebravores.

MIDNIGHT FEAST
